Llamamos la atencion de los Señores Estancieros sobre este escepcional lote de toros sangre pura Durham, procedentes del primer establecimiento en Inglaterra propiedad del Duque de Manchester y conocido por Kimbolton Herd. Es universalmente sabido que este noble criador es quien paga y ha pagado siempre los mas altos precios por animales reproductores en ganado vacuno que se han presentado a venta en el reino unido y prueba de ello es que el toro padre de algunos de los que ofrecemos hoy en remate Duke of Underley, le cuesta 4000 guineas ($f.20,000) mas o menos, cuando no tenia un año de edad, de consiguiente, creemos no exagerar al decir que no ha venido nada mejor hasta hoy al pais.

He aqui el pormenor.

The Two Thousand Guineas Stakes, the first great English Three-year-old Race of the Spring, was run yesterday (April 28th) at Newmarket.

The Duke of Beaufort's brown colt Petronel, by Musket, out of Crytheia, came in first; the Duke of Westminster's chesnut colt Muncaster, by Doncaster, out of Winder mere running second.

(Petronel has never been beaten, having won the two races he started for last year; but it is probable that he will meet in the Epsom Derby with more formidable antagonists—in the Duke of Westminster's undefeated Bend'or and in Lord Alington's Beaudesert—than those he beat yesterday. Muncaster did not run last year)

ANOTHER REFORM.

The 'conventillos' of Buenos Ayres have long been the disgrace of the so-called Athens of South America, and are a source of continual alarm to the population and trouble to the sanitary authorities: if the numerous and loosely connected bodies who are supposed to look after the hygiene of the city can be called by such a name. Years and years ago, even before the death-dealing Plague of 1871, these 'conventillos' were recognised as the root and hot-bed of the too numerous diseases which have obtained a foothold in this town; and although, under the panic-terror which the Yellow Fever caused, some attempts were made to root them out, they all ended in smoke, and these noxious dwellings are to-day a greater source of danger than ever.

Let any man take up the Gaceta Medica and read, fortnight after fortnight, its just and courageous indictment of the Health authorities of Buenos Ayres, and its warnings in reference to these 'conventillos,' and descriptions of the shameful way in which the poorer classes are huddled together in them, and the fact of our having escaped a pestilence in the past summer will really seem like a direct interposition of Providence in our favour. The 'health' measures one reads of in the native papers every morning really read more like heavy jokes than anything else: One day the brewers are forbidden, under penalties little short of hanging, to throw their refuse water into the river, and, next day, when the Health men discover that there is no other outlet for it, the beer makers are told it was all a mistake. Then a sweep is made on the conventillos, and, as during the past few days, fines amounting to 72,000 m/c are levied for sundry paltry violations of what are euphoniously called 'the sanitary regulations.' Throwing water, clean or dirty, into the street is also a fruitful source of revenue in the fine way. While all this nonsense is going on, no effort is made to get at the root of the evil and reform the dwellings of the humbler classes.

What the authorities have so long failed in doing, a private individual has at last attempted, and Mr. Cano's Model Lodging House in Calle Corrientes, opposite the Opera House, has for days past been the theme of warm admiration from our native colleagues. We fully share in this admiration, mainly for the reason that we believe this spirited gentleman will find imitators, and that he has struck the key-note of a reform that will eventually secure decent dwellings for the working men of Buenos Ayres, and thereby greatly improve the health and well-being of a large proportion of the population.

But, while we sincerely applaud Mr Cano's enterprise and spirit, and can find but little fault with the handsome building he has erected, which contains ample and separate accommodation for 70 small families, there are some points which will tell against his success. First and foremost, we doubt if Calle Corrientes, in the very heart of the city, and in a quarter which is full of theatres, restaurants, and other places which are open till very late hours, be the proper place for a workman's home. Next, the rents which have been fixed—500 m/c. for the larger suites of rooms, and 350 for the smaller, are quite out of the reach of the working classes, and out of all reasonable proportion with the rents now paid in Buenos Ayres for house accommodation. Very comfortable small houses can be had now in the more retired streets, towards the outskirts, at less rent than Mr Cano asks for his suites of rooms, or 'casitas,' in his Model Lodging House: he may get the rents he asks, but it will not be from the working classes, and it is these classes who suffer most from the present state of things. It ought to be possible to build near the outskirts—about Plaza Once, the Recoleta, or the South Plaza—workmen's dwellings that would return right good interest to the capitalist, and yet could be let at one half, probably one third, the rent which is asked at the new Model Lodging House in Calle Corrientes.

In any case, Mr Cano deserves every encouragement in his enterprise which, if it do not succeed in dealing a first blow at the 'conventillo' system, will certainly encourage others to follow in his wake; and, some day perhaps, when the present political hurricane has blown over, we may find the Legislature taking the matter up and helping private efforts to raise the moral and material level of the humbler classes of the city by giving them the most essential of all aids to that end—a cheap and decent dwelling-house.

MUNICIPAL ITEMS.

MORTALITY AND BIRTHS.

We extract from Mr. Guerrico's Municipal Report many interesting and important details regarding the public health of Buenos Ayres. Mortality tables are always important, and reflect the state of the public health very well. The increase of population is the first care of the Government of a young country, and all obstacles should be removed which prevent the steady growth of our population. Vice and misery prevent the growth of population, whilst poverty, sickness, unhealthy houses and bad food decimate it. No doubt in spite of all these obstacles the population of the country daily increases, and the number of births largely exceeds the deaths, whilst immigration, on the other hand, is flocking to our shores. Nevertheless it is the duty of the Municipality to remove all obstacles to population, and the first move should be a total reform in the present conventillo system.

It is really astonishing to know that about one-fifth of the population of Buenos Ayres is closeted in these conventillos, which are always a remote, if not direct danger, owing to the over-crowded dwellings.

The following figures show the number of conventillos and their inhabitants in each parish of the city:—

	Houses	Inhabitants
Catedral Norte	1 3	4341
San Miguel	87	2283
San Nicolas	182	6083
Piedad	204	6783
Socorro	192	6859
Pilar	35	1273
Balvanera	181	4551
Catedral Sud	63	2118
Monserat	133	4120
Concepcion	220	5834
San Telmo	152	4300
San Cristobal	30	649
S. Juan Evangelista	117	2808
Santa Lucia	41	705
Total	1770	51915

These 51,915 inhabitants are thus divided:—

Men	19,820
Women	14,560
Children	17,535
Total	51,915

These 1770 conventillos have 24,032 apartments, of which 17,744 are made of brick and mortar, and 6,279 of wood with zinc roofing. In the last yellow fever scare some were closed and are now, no doubt, under a process of disinfection.

The 'conventillos' should be all gradually closed—crowded places like these in the lower stages of the population can never be healthy. Besides, these places are nightly scenes of scandal and fight. Typhus and small-pox have been raging greatly during the year 1879, and even until lately in the conventillos. Small-pox has assumed quite an epidemic form, and the people are not at all aware of all the victims that have been carried off by this scourge and swelled the mortality returns. Vaccination is free, but there is a most regrettable indifference on the part of parents; and the children, and very often the parents also, meet a fate they could have easily avoided.

In comparing the mortality of the last few years we find a most significant table:—

	Deaths.
1870	5,886
1871 (yellow fever)	20,748
1872	5,671
1873	5,891
1874 (cholera)	7,190
1875	6,889
1876	5,333
1877	5,647
1878	5,613
1879	6,879

Thus the average number of deaths in normal years does not reach 6,000. In 1871 we suffered from the yellow fever, in 1874 from cholera, and in 1875 from small-pox.

The increase in the number of deaths for 1879 is mainly due to small-pox, introduced so imprudently by hiring the Pampa Indians captured in the expedition to the Rio Negro. A second cause of this increase is due to the spread of measles and scarlet fever amongst children. It is truly terrible when we see that children figured above 50 per cent in the number of deaths. The conventillo life carries off hundreds of infants.

During 1879 there were born 10,390 children; in this figure are not included those children who died in the course of the 12 months from their birth. In 1878 there were only 8993 births; thus 1879 shows a difference of 1397—a rather high figure. It is to be understood that only baptized children are herein included. The Piedad and Concepcion parishes gave the most births

The Equateur's Mails.

London, April 3.

The results of the polls in six Metropolitan constituencies were made known yesterday; eleven out of the twelve members returned being Liberals. The only Conservative declared to have been elected was Mr. Ritchie, in the Tower Hamlets; the Liberals winning two seats in Southwark, one in Chelsea, and one in Marylebone. Up to last night the net Liberal gain in the United Kingdom was 51 seats.

Lord Hartington will complete his election tour on Wednesday, when his last speech before the polling will be made at Burnley. To-day there is a meeting at Rishton, on Monday at Darwen, and on Tuesday at Oswaldtwistle.

Mr Gladstone, speaking yesterday at West Calder, said he rejoiced that the people of England had so risen to the importance of the crisis that they had already practically decided the fate of the present Government. England has nobly done its duty, and the latest instance of that was in the case of the important Metropolitan Borough of Southwark. Lord Beaconsfield had said that the issues of this election would decide the peace of Europe and the destinies of England. If that were so, the people were giving a very decisive answer to that observation. The sound which the constituencies had given forth within the last two days would do a vast deal to reassure those Powers which had always believed in our desire for freedom, but whose belief in that respect had lately been checked.

Our Correspondent in St. Petersburg telegraphs that surprise is felt there at the Liberal gains in the elections. On the Bourse the news scarcely affected the rate of exchange, and the prices of all kinds of stocks were generally firmer. From Berlin and Vienna prices also come stronger. It is thus pretty evident, our Correspondent says, that in the principal European capitals as much or more confidence is felt in the maintenance of peace by a Liberal Government as by the Beaconsfield Cabinet.

Professor Nordenskjolk reached Paris yesterday morning and was met at the railway terminus by the Swedish Minister, a deputation from the French Geographical Society, and a large number of Scandinavians. To-day he will receive the Cross of Commander of the Legion of Honour from the Minister of Public Instruction.

Our Constantinople Correspondent says the general belief is that the Grand Vizier will soon be changed, owing to the measures of the Porte having largely increased the misery and disaffection prevailing throughout the country, especially in Asia Minor. The local papers, our Correspondent adds, are full of accounts of exactions by the Government officials from the starving people.

A telegram from Capetown states that hopes are entertained of a peaceful settlement of the Transvaal question. Mr. Kruger and Mr. Joubert have been deputed by the Boers to visit the Cape Colony in order to urge their claims.

Yesterday, as we learn by special telegram, a decree of the Khedive was issued defining functions of the International Committee of Liquidation.

Telegrams from Baden-Baden state that Her Majesty Queen Victoria walked this morning to the Michaelsberg. The Princess Beatrice paid a visit to the cemetery this afternoon, and subsequently drove to the Altschloss, the Eberstelnburg, and the Teufelskanzel.

The Paris journals say that General Sir Evelin Wood is preparing a surprise for the Empress Eugenie in Zululand by planting grafts from the St. Helena willow on the spot where Prince Louis Napoleon fell.

Amongst the results of the running at the Catterick Bridge Races yesterday were the following:—Bainesse Welter, Captain Blue and Nelson ran a dead heat for first place. In the deciding heat Captain Blue beat Nelson. Oran Plate, Lauriston; Manor House Selling Plate, Selred; Brough Hall Handicap, The Rowan; North Riding Hunters Steeplechase, Sankey.

An arrangement has been made with the Belgian Court fixing the marriage of the Crown Prince Rudolph with Princess Stephanie for the end of February next year. After the wedding they will take up their residence for a time at Prague.

Her Majesty's corvette Bachante, with the sons of the Prince of Wales on board, is expected at Lisbon.

The Crown Princess of Germany paid a visit to-day to King Humbert.

Prince Alexander arrived at Sofia yesterday afternoon on his return from Russia. His Highness was met outside the town by a number of the inhabitants, from whom he received an enthusiastic welcome. The town was illuminated in the evening. The National Assembly will meet on the 4th inst.

In the stock markets yesterday the principal features were a rise in Russian stocks and a fall in Turkish securities. Home railways were steady, Metropolitan District rose 1½. Consols fractionally declined to 97⅞ to 98⅛.

JUJUY RAILWAY INAUGURATION

THE CITY OF TUCUMAN.

(Our Special Correspondent.)

Tucuman 23d.

This city is, according to Mulhall's Handbook to the River Plate, situated about 825 miles from B. Ayres by the railroad, although by the old road the distance measures nearly 1100 miles. By the same authority it is stated that it was founded in 1585, that it is 1430 ft. above the level of the sea, in Lat. 26.52 S. and 68.20 W., and that at the time of the author's visit it had about 17,500 inhabitants.

To-day it is claimed to possess some 25 to 28,000 inhabitants, a population which is rapidly augmenting.

Its appearance is a pleasant surprise to the traveller who expects to find in a town so remote from the capital only mean buildings and unpaved streets.

Instead of this he finds a city having every evidence of life and prosperity. The central plaza is a pleasant spot, of greater area than any of the plazas of Buenos Ayres. It is surrounded by beautiful orange trees, and is decorated by a central monument, two handsome fountains and two elegant kiosks for the bands which play there three times the week. The surrounding buildings are many of them equal to those of their class in the National capital, and this superior order of edifices continues for several squares down the principal streets, which are very fairly paved and swept. In the outskirts are many fine 'quintas' in the gardens of which the luxuriant vegetation shows the fertility of the soil and the semitropical climate.

Nor do the inhabitants of this agreeable city belie our expectations, for, to judge by what we have seen at the social gatherings and in the Plaza on music nights, they will compare favorably with any in the Republic. Even the lower orders have better faces than the corresponding classes of the provinces through which we have passed on our journey.

The site of the city is level, but from the Plaza and everywhere may be seen the snow-clad peaks of the Sierra of Catamarca, or Aconquipa, which is refreshing to the eye, and adds a noble feature to the landscape.

Round the city the country is lovely, being extremely fertile and highly cultivated. The roads are bounded by fringes of bushy shrubs and hedges of prickly cactus. The sugar cane fields are at present masses of emerald green, which are contrasted by fields of maize and dark green patches of tobacco.

The sugar-cane is at present about four feet in height, and will not be ready for harvesting till about the end of May. The sugar manufactories are marvels of enterprise and capital, and are giving most satisfactory results.

In future letters I hope to give detailed descriptions of these establishments, of which there are between 40 and 50 in the province.

For the present I will merely state that the harvest this year, it is expected, will reach 900,000 arrobas of sugar, besides some 100,000 barrels of aguardiente, representing a money value of not less than $8,3,000.000,

This industry is as yet but in its infancy and the profits are such that they have only to be known to attract capital here in large quantity; 40 and 50 per cent. per annum are spoken of as ordinary profits and indeed much more has been mentioned to us.

So important does this business seem that it is my intention to make a minute examination of it and report. In this I have been much encouraged by the Ministers of the Interior and Finance who have promised every assistance, as they consider it to be of great importance that the resources of this province should be better known.

In a hall which is only about 30x 15 ft. and is provided with an earthen floor and open timbered roof which shows the tiles, was first proclaimed the famous Declaration of Independence on the 9th July 1816.

The building in which it is contained forms the back of the patio of the new and handsome Post-office, and it is unmarked by any sign to tell of the associations which cling around it.

It would be a fitting act to repair this edifice, and to place in it some historical collection, and a plate telling of the great events which have taken place within its walls. Funds would not be lacking for this purpose, which appeals to the heart of every Argentine patriot, to mark the cradle of his liberty.

Dear Standard,

Argentines here are preparing a demonstration for the arrival of the ashes of General San Martin. In Buenos Ayres, no doubt, the ceremony will be the grandest thing ever seen on this side of the Line. All your Conciliados, Mitristas, Roquistas, Liricos, &c., should fuse into one party and welcome the ashes of the General, and pay a tribute to his glory by sealing peace, effacing your present candidates, and emerge out of the struggle before the eyes of the world as a grand and united nation. Let your National army draw up in your streets and present arms; let your Tiros throw aside the Remington and parade in the Calle Florida in dress coats and white cravats. You, Argentines, in spite of all your defects, have several fine traits of character: you are brave and you are patriotic.

There is no doubt that Argentine politics influence those of the Banda Oriental. A Tiro Nacional organisation is already mooted, and, unfortunately for the country, the scheme finds supporters in the Press. The sacred rights of the people are invoked, besides some trash about liberty. Orientales are not as free as Britons, Frenchmen or Yankees, and yet such an attempt would be smothered immediately by their respective Governments. The Executive should pass a law limiting the right of carrying rifles, to the National troops of the Line. The most excited supporters of the Tiro scheme are beardless boys; no doubt, the same as on your side of the Plate.

A Pelotas telegram announces that Latorre is in Brazil. The papers send him a joyous 'God speed,' but tremble, nevertheless, lest he should come back. Your colleagues are becoming fidgety, and view with considerable suspicion how Mr. Santos is acting in the officer roll of the army. Latorre is yet a formidable bugbear, and his enemies are on the 'qui vive;' they are beginning to fear that they have gone too far. There is no doubt that the ex-Dictator stifled liberty; therein he did wrong, but, on the other hand, he saved the country, at least 'pro tem;' and did he not say that his countrymen were ungovernable? There is sarcasm in the truth.

Public attention is attracted to the Bravo scheme in Bolivia. The papers spell the name 'Brabo'—but it must be taken into consideration that Spaniards and their descendants in general are like the French, who cannot write their own language correctly. Orthography is best known in old Vaterland, where they spell their words exactly as they pronounce them. I have my own opinion about this Bravo business. I have remarked that whenever a scheme is impracticable, Congress sanctions it immediately, and surrenders the whole territory to the concessionaires.

There is some hitch in the Lapido business; nevertheless the money is gone, and Latorre is over the frontier deeply impressed,

Voltaire.

A DEAD PARLIAMENT.

THE CLOSING SCENE.

The ninth Parliament of the Queen was successfully put an end to this afternoon, when its career came to a very unheroic close, strictly in keeping with the general tenour of its previous course. Shortly before two o'clock the Lords Commissioners appointed to prorogue Parliament ranged themselves in front of the empty throne in the Upper House, in which were assembled eleven ladies (favoured according to custom at the close of a session with seats upon the Opposition side) and exactly a dozen Peers. No Ministers appeared, the only occupant of the front bench being a nobleman unknown to fame. The single prelate was the Bishop of St. Albans, who as the youngest addition to the episcopal bench, attended to read prayers. Of course nobody manifested the least wish to do any business, and at the earliest possible moment the Lord Chancellor ordered Black Rod to betake himself to the other House, and summon the faithful Commons, in a parliamentary sense, to 'come and be killed.' It was noticed that Earl Cairns was very particular to tell the gentleman usher to 'desire' the attendance of the other House in obedience to the recent ruling of Sir George Bowyer to the effect that the word 'require' is 'contrary to the dignity' of the House of Commons.

In the Lower House prayers were over at a quarter to two, but a quorum of members could not be obtained, and the Speaker was therefore unable to go into the chair, but sat in Sir T. Erskine May's place at the table waiting for the requisite forty to turn up. Altogether there were 26 members present. Upon the Treasury bench sat the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord Eustace Cecil, Lord Barrington, and Sir James Elphinstone. Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen held sole possession of the front Opposition bench, all the other Liberal leaders being engaged in fighting valiantly for their seats elsewhere. Besides Lord Barrington, Sir J. Elphinstone, and the Lord Advocate, who now retire from political life, there appeared on this melancholy occasion several gentlemen with whom the new Parliament will be unacquainted. The certainty of these members that they were paying their final visit and the doubts of some others as to the chances of their ever coming back combined to produce a very depressing effect upon the small gathering which found in the expiring House of Commons a temporary refuge from party strife; and in the absence of Sir George Balfour and one or two of the other fluent orators whose eloquence has been wont to flow in torrents in the closing moments of preceding sessions, probably nothing whatever would have been done even had it been found practicable to 'make a House' before Black Rod approached. The moment that official knocked at the door the Speaker was at liberty to assume the chair, but it was then too late for debate on any subject, and the mute legislators, resigning themselves to fate, remained dumb to the end. Sir William Knollys wore the full uniform of his office, and bore a cocked hat in one hand and a gold-tipped wand in the other. He advanced with tottering steps up the floor, peering from side to side anxiously, as though in search of the individual by whom complaint had been made of his irregularity in delivering the message from the Lords. Failing to discover Sir G. Bowyer, though he passed right in front of that authority on constitutional law and parliamentary precedent, Black Rod made his way to the table, and delivered his message in a loud voice and without a pause till he came to the word 'desire,' which he pronounced with terrific emphasis, and then stopped abruptly, with intent, as was supposed, to give Sir George Bowyer or any other carping critic an opportunity of raising another objection, if he thought it judicious to enter into a controversy with a Knight Commander of the Bath prior to the dissolution. No one ventured to utter a syllable; it was not clear that the House ventured to breathe; at any rate, a deep and solemn silence prevailed, unbroken even by a suppressed titter. Black Rod had no alternative but to resume his message, which he completed apparently without so much as a single error, though he omitted to say anything about the impending prorogation.

Responding to his courteous invitation, the Speaker and all the members present hastened to the bar of the House of Lords, from which point they not only heard the Royal assent given to the Corrupt Practices Bill, but listened to the sentence of prorogation. When they returned the Sergeant-at-Arms no longer carried the mace, but the Speaker smiled cheerfully, and, taking up a position by the table, re-read the Queen's Speech. As the Chancellor of the Exchequer had vanished, Mr. W. H. Smith led the procession which passed by the Speaker for the purpose of bidding him farewell. Some of the leave takings were extremely dismal, those who were departing never to return again being effusive and almost lachrymose. The last to shake hands was Sir C. Dilke, whose demeanor, however, was indicative of the reverse of despondency. At twenty minutes past two o'clock on a bright afternoon the House of Commons had practically ceased to exist, and Mr. Grisell, the proclamation of dissolution, and the writs were about to be let loose upon the country.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The mails by the French mail steamer Equateur were delivered yesterday, and the latest news will be found in another column. The papers received are brimming over with election news, and nothing else. The Times publishes a biography of all the new members elected, a good many of whom are not to be found in either Burke or Debrett, but they are now to be found in the Times, which is quite as good. The sweeping success of the Liberals has quite staggered the Continent. The Germans can hardly believe that their Anglo-Saxon cousins could possibly turn out Lord Beaconsfield for being too 'imperial,' which they consider a small fault in a good child: the Russians are deeply glad, as they consider it will be far easier to 'walk round' the 'people's William' than old Dizzy: the Austrians dont like it, and the Italians do. The impression in England when the elections began was that Lord Granville had a chance of the Premiership.

The Nacional published a telegram yesterday from Chile stating that Callao had been bombarded by the Chilian fleet. Great damage done to the city. The greater part of the population has fled to Lima.

Our sporting readers will join us in thanking the kind subscriber who has favoured us with the telegram about the Two Thousand Guineas which will be found in another column. There is generally a little money wagered here in sporting circles on the great races at home.

In spite of the fears entertained and notes of frantic alarm sounded by some of our native colleagues, and all the drumming and drilling and blunderbuss buying going on, the impression gains ground in cool-headed quarters that the Presidential question will be peacefully settled. It appears that an embassy started on Wednesday for Cordoba to arrange matters with General Roca, who will 'stoop to conquer' and share the loaf. This will evidently be the upshot of all the fuss.

Mr Carroll, Chairman of the Irish Relief Fund, received yesterday from the Lord Mayor of Dublin two letters acknowledging receipt of the first two remittances of £1000 each from Buenos Ayres, and enclosing official receipts for same, and a pamphlet containing particulars of the proceedings of the Dublin Mansion House Committee from its foundation. We will publish the Lord Mayor's letters to-morrow.

May will be a grand month for idlers and people who dislike anything in 'the sweat of your brow' line. In addition to five Sundays, there will be the Feasts of the Ascension and Corpus Christi, the Rivadavia fete on 20th, and the National fetes on 24th and 25th, thus making 10 holidays in 31 days.

The meeting of the German Literary Society took place at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening at the German Chapel. Present—Mr. William Paats, the Dutch Consul-General; Mr de Barry, the Austrian Consul General; Mr. Luis Maas, Mr. Henry Zwingen, Mr. M Weill and many other German residents. Consul Diehl and Dr. Lopez excused their non-attendance. Rev. Mr. Schede took the chair. The statutes were, with a few modifications, approved; and the result of the election of officers was the following:—

Rev. Mr. Schede, President.
Consul Paats, Vice-President.
Consul de Barry, Treasurer.
Mr. Henry Swingen, Hon. Sec.

Mr. Henry Ristenpart, Hon. Sec., and Messrs. Lederer and Giessen, all gentlemen highly esteemed in the German community. The names of Consuls Paats and De Barry and Mr. Zwingen ensure that the success of the Society will be most brilliant.

The following is the original manner in which the New York Evening Telegram publishes some statistics and census reports of Spain:—"In the fiscal year which terminated on September 30, 1879, the Spanish peninsula possessed 92 dukes, 200,000 horses, 807 marquises, 2,500,000 jackasses and mules, 633 counts, 3,000,000 head of cattle, 92 viscounts, 23,000,000 sheep, 93 barons, 4,500,000 goats, 16,889 students in the Universities, and 1,500,000 hogs, &c." And yet it is said that the Yankee has no genius for inventing statistics!

The members of the Pickpocket Club who lately arrived here from England must be doing a roaring trade. We cannot remember a time when so many people were complaining of 'tick'-doloreux—in other words, the loss of their watches. So much for a taste for jewellery. Most people wear such terribly 'loud' gold chains, that they might as well stick a placard on the front of their waistcoat, inscribed 'Here's a watch for you!' Such chains are a direct invitation to the thieves.

Mr. David Lewis, the popular and distinguished Professor of English in the University and National College, will leave in the Royal Mail steamer Elbe on a six months' tour in Europe. We wish him the jolliest time possible. He will get to old Wales in the leafy month of June, just in time for the bathing season at that most fashionable of watering-places, Llandudno.

Mr. Lucio V. Lopez has just been appointed Hon. Secretary to the Argentine Legation in London. We believe this is an unusual appointment in Legations, and denotes a special compliment to Mr. Lopez.

Hermann, the greatest Wizard under the sun, will be here on the 10th prox: he is now at Rio. They say he played some astounding tricks on board the steamer on the voyage out, and many of the passengers thought that the d——l himself was on board.

During the Rivadavia Centenary procession on the 20th prox, through Calles Florida, Rivadavia and Victoria, these streets will be lined with 20,000 public school children, seated on benches which will be arranged on each side: A prettier sight by far than if troops lined the way.

It is said that Dr. Plaza, the retiring National Minister of Finance will be elected Vice-President of the National Chamber of Deputies, on taking his seat for Salta.

The autumn race meeting at Lanus is announced for the 6th May, and sporting men say it bids fair to be a good one.

The Azul papers teem with camp robberies, which, added to the drought, makes an estanciero's life in that quarter by no means a pleasant one. 'Que voulez vous?' The policemen are all drilling from morn till night, and have no time for such humdrum duties as looking after robbers.

The Pueblo Argentino publishes an unpleasant piece of news, viz., that 50 of the worst criminals in the Penitentiary have been taken out, to strengthen the Provincial Guards. The practice of recruiting soldiers from felons is a most revolting one: in other countries the honest soldiers would mutiny if subjected to such an indignity.

The famed race course at Belgrano, where the Jockey Club and our old collaborateur Mr G. P. Crauford used to outshine Longchamps, in years gone by, has been embargoed by an apothecary of the town, for 12,000 m/c. worth of Cockle's pills and Castor oil which the Municipality bought from him but forgot to pay for. This apothecary has no poetry in his soul, or he would have spared the race course.

We have dates from Panama to March 25th. There is no news, and nothing fresh in either the revolution or earthquake line.

Another regimental colours blessing is to come off next week at Cordoba, and General Roca will be the sponsor. The General will probably seize the opportunity to hint what he intends doing in the Presidential muddle.

Judging from the papers, the city health is not of the best just now. Typhus fever is very prevalent: In the Merced Orphanage there are 45 girls stricken with it.

In accordance with last night's closing prices, the Gold Ring opened strong to-day at 30.70 for cash and for the end of the month. The market quickly stiffened to 30.75 for both the above dates, as also May and June, and the bulk of the day's transactions was effected at these quotations. For a short time price for May hardened to 30.80, but subsequently fell again to 30.75. The market closed steady and strong at 30.75 buyers for all dates.

In National Bank Stock 1,100 shares changed hands for to-morrow at 58½-58⅝ and 58⅝ last price. For May prices ruled firmer.

Treasury bills evinced a still further weakness; $12,000 for cash and $5,000 for to-morrow being done at 79½.

Cedulas Hipotecarias again attracted more attention, and commanded better prices. Opening with cash sales for $8,000 at 86 and improving to 86½ for $12,000. For to-morrow $5,000 done at 86, and $10,000 for June at same price.

Exchange for the Horrox is somewhat scarce and some leading exporting German houses have reduced their rate to 49½. Nevertheless first class paper is easily obtainable at 49½, and takers hold back for 49⅝. Francs are quoted at 5.20 and 5.21 on Paris and Antwerp respectively, but very little doing as yet. The private banks are drawing at 49.

On Montevideo the premium is well sustained. Transactions at 1½ o/o are reported for yesterday, and bills are still in request.

We note a renewed enquiry for good gold for the rivers. There are buyers at 1⅛ for Condors and Brazilians.

Municipal Bills, with nearly 3 months to run, have been discounted to-day at 18 o/o annual. This is a very high figure, considering the renewed abundance of paper money in the market.

Discounts are decidedly easier; 5 to 5½ o/o for gold, and 6 to 6½ o/o for paper may be quoted for good commercial pagares.

In Paysandu the Vaillant is about to commence loading with hides. The Wolzhava with tallow from Guaviyu, and the Alberta with hides from Santa Maria's, have finished receiving their cargoes. The Cosmos on her last trip down the Uruguay, ran aground below Guaviyu, and some of the passengers betook themselves to a passing lighter, which conveyed them to Villa Coton, where by boat they reached Paysandu at 2 o'clock at night.

The National War steamer Pavon was sold yesterday by auction at the Tigre. The competition was animated, and this venerable relic, encrusted with the reminiscences of historic periods, was knocked down at $f.4,800 legal currency. "Sic transit etc."

Mr Carroll, managing partner of the firm of Bates Stokes & Co., was welcomed on 'Change to-day on his return from Montevideo; he reports things somewhat dull down there.

The following data concerning the cattle faena this season will prove interesting. The total slaughterings in the saladeros in this Province, Montevideo, Rivers and Rio Grande to date are as follows:—

The estancieros of the Plate are buying up quickly all the imported prize animals, and in a few years we may expect a still more varied Show of fine animals at the Rural Exhibition. Mr Downes has sold 6 of his finest animals lately introduced into the country, viz. 2 cows 3 heifers and 1 bull calf for the round sum of 90,000 m/c, perhaps the largest sale to one person in the season. The purchaser is Mr. S S E Rogers, who will transport them to his fine chacra Victoria in Carcaraña, Santa Fe. The animals are of the finest breeds in England; Bates and Booth. The introduction and ready purchase of such animals is a sign of the times, and a most eloquent proof of progress in live stock.

The Argentine Gas Company, under the able management of Mr William Woodgate, will begin to pay a dividend of 8 per cent from to-morrow.

The news that the graseria of the magnificent saladero Guaviyu, belonging to Sr. Pineyrua, was completely destroyed by fire on the evening of the 27th inst. caused much regret on 'Change. This accident will bring to a sudden termination the killing in this establishment.

"Short loans are still much wanted in Lombard Street, but rates of discount were to-day quoted 2⅝ per cent for three months' bank bills, some speculative brokers working at 2½. It is believed also that Banks are filling their bill cases as far as possible before the dividends pour money out of the bank and depress the rates still further, and it is known that some millions have to be repaid to the Bank by those who have of late been discounting or borrowing there. The dividends due on April 5th are 4½ millions sterling, but, perhaps, more than half of that sum will have to be almost at once repaid, and, if so, the dividends will hardly produce much further depression. On the other hand, it is judged that rates here and in Paris tend to equalise, or, in other words, that the London rate will be depressed by French money, although at present the Paris exchange is kept down by the requirements of the Bourse settlement. On the whole, the tendency in this market is distinctly downward for the moment; but the gold movement must determine the ultimate course of the market. We are exposed to a certain internal and a possible foreign drain during April and May. Bar silver remained at 52½d. per ounce.

"A Queensland Government loan, which has been for some little time expected, is announced. The issue is £2,000,000, the rate of interest 4 per cent, and the minimum price at which tenders will be received is 89 per cent."

It was thought in the City that the Liberal Government will at once convert the large Floating Debt left by the Conservatives in Treasury Bills and Exchequer Bonds into Consols.

The commercial advices from Montevideo this morning report that market unchanged and very dull. Yesterday there was a sharp fall of over 26 per cent in the premium on gold, 5,000 pats. changing hands at 337; this improved quotation for paper money was caused by the general belief that the Government would accept the proposals recently made by the holders of the 'nationalized' notes. Imports are stagnant, except wines, which continue in brisk demand. In exports two small sales of feathers were the only transactions. The Equateur landed 1,512 bordalesas of wine.

The second private telegraph wire in this city was inaugurated yesterday by Messrs. Corti & Co. from their town offices to the Boca. It will be remembered that Messrs Drysdale & Co. led the way some months ago in this commercial improvement, and they will, doubtless, have many more imitators.

The news to-day from the Southern camps is as bad, or worse, than that received yesterday from the Western districts. A dreadful drought prevails, and cattle are being hurried to the outside camps from all directions. The sheep as yet have not suffered so much, but unless rain come very shortly, most disastrous results for estancieros must follow.

The National Government signed yesterday, with Mr Ramon Castro, another contract for the survey of 300 square leagues of land in the Rio Negro territory.

The National Bank Directors have named Don Manuel Castro manager of the branch in the city of Salta, vice Don F Ortiz, who lately resigned the post.

The Engineers Department has sent in to the National Government the claim of the Central Argentine Railway Company for the guarantee due to 31st December, 1879, which amounts to £38,787 stg.

The experiment about to be tried by the well known firm of Silveira & Co. with guano from Patagonia is of much importance and may eventually lead to Patagonian guano becoming the vast source of wealth which Dr. Alberdi dreams of. The enterprising firm in question have obtained permission to take a thousand tons of guano from the islands in the South, and by mixing certain animal refuse with it, and so restoring the properties which the rain takes from it, expect a manure which will fully equal, if not surpass, the famed Peruvian guano which the farmers of Europe have so long sworn by. It is to be hoped that this very important experiment will meet with the fullest success.

The Lavarello steamer Sud America has brought 600 immigrants and Gibraltar dates to 7th inst., but there was some hitch at the General Post Office this morning, and we could not get our papers of that date.

It was said on 'Change to-day that Dr. Goyena will hold the National Finance portfolio till the end of the Avellaneda administration, and that no successor to Dr Plaza will be named. The portfolio is in very good hands with Dr Goyena.

Messrs Woodgate Brothers, shipbrokers, in their circular for the mail, give the following:—

And rates have fallen to 20s. for steamers. The total quantity sailed and engaged to date is ..... 210,320 bales

There was much talk on 'Change to-day respecting the Exhibition, as a rumour has got wind that it is in contemplation to postpone it till next year. It would be expedient for the Committee to clear this matter up as speedily as possible. Many people believe that, as the time now remaining is so short (only four months) it will be impossible to have the Exhibition building erected and all the arrangements to ensure success properly made by the month of September, the date named for the Exhibition. The recent advices from London respecting the dissatisfaction there at the great difficulty in obtaining any information about the Exhibition, plainly show that the Commissioners have not attached sufficient importance to the necessity of having the First Argentine International Fair properly advertised in the European papers, and ample time allowed to foreign exhibitors to prepare for it. It is quite clear that intending English exhibitors have been left quite in the dark up to the present, and we suppose the French, Germans and Italians are in the same box. If so, there can be no two opinions as to the advisability of postponing the Exhibition till next year. A postponement can do no harm, but will give time to ensure complete success; on the other hand, a failure would have the worst effect in Europe, and it is much to be feared that an attempt to hurry the thing through in four bare months would end in conspicuous failure.

Amidst the excited feelings and hot discussions of the diverse political partizans of the day, it is refreshing and comforting to watch two certain indices of the country's progress, to wit the price of gold, and the value of National securities. This time last year the gold patacon was worth 32.40, to-day only 30.65, indicating an improvement of 7 o/o in the value of the paper money patacon. National Bonds twelve months ago were sold at 58½, to-day they are sought for at 81. Up to date the receipts for this month of the Nat. Custom House have exceeded a million of fuertes. The progressive and enlightened Estanciero is paying 30,000 m/c a piece for rams, and 3,000 m/c a piece for ewes of superior strains, with which to refine his flocks. Our cereals and our animal products maintain remunerative values in the foreign markets; and the general state of the Republic undeniably is prosperous. And this improvement in our paper money, and augmented credit in our National Stocks, is occurring in the very face of a presidential contest, which has created perhaps more interest excitement and party-feeling than any previous one. It is true that (though seemingly an anachronism) the Ides of March, the critical moment, is not yet passed. But it is equally certain that the general public has an unswerving faith that the wisdom, temperance forbearance, and patriotic self-sacrifice of the antagonistic leading spirits of the Nation will obviate intestine commotions, and grant to their joint heritage a peaceful, and as a natural sequence, a prosperous future.

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Rodnent Hall. Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

Muy importante para el Publico.

Poseido de la mayor ansiedad, y con el debido respecto al Publico, apelo muy encarecidamente a toda clase de personas, para que se dignen prestarme su apoyo, dando a conocer como falsas las malas y aun peligrosas falsificaciones de mis medicinas, hechas principalmente en Nueva York, de que tengan conocimiento.

Especuladores nada escrupulosos adquieren esta broza a un precio sumamente bajo, y la venden como si fuera mis genuinas pildoras y ungüento, logrando con este reprobado trafico una enorme ganancia.

Ninguno de los expresados medicamentos son genuinos, si no llevan en el rotulo de cada bote y caja la inscripcion siguiente: Holloway's Pills and Ointment, 533, Oxford Street, London, y el sello del Gobierno Britanico, con las palabras Holloway's Pills and Ointment, grabadas en el.

Las personas que tengan la bondad de informar de algun traficante que venda las enunciadas medicinas falsas, seran muy bien recomensadas, y nunca, ni en circumstancia alguna, se publicaran sus nombres.
